High school years are marked with success and failure, with joy and sorrow, with victory and defeat. This book is a record of the year's light and of its darkness. Although it includes some of the shadows, it is full of the brightness of new frontiers, high ambitions, and worthwhile accomplishments.

Studying and counseling helps students discover abilities.

Science offers occasions to explore and to think critically.

Practical knowledge is valuable for homemaking.

Students prepare for the challenge of business.

The new school is part of a future bright with steady progress.

To the Seniors:

This year represents another milestone in the history of Anderson High School. The class of '61 is the last class to graduate from the present school. The ten-year span over which this building has been occupied has seen many changes. Not only has the size of the graduating class quadrupled, but the quality of the education received has improved to a marked degree, thus enabling us to turn out students of whom we can be truly proud.

In the final analysis, the quality of any product depends on the use to which it is put. And this is where you come into the picture. You have been given certain tools, certain appreciations, and a certain amount of knowledge. The use you make of your ability will determine the kind of niche you carve for yourself in tomorrow's world. Whatever your lot in life, and certainly we hope it is a bountiful one, your success will be measured by the contribution you make to the welfare of all with whom you come in contact. May you have divine guidance in your future endeavors. Congratulations and best wishes.

CAST

Mr. Beebe	John Marshall
Mrs. Hamner	Sue Heeb
Miss Hoadley	Laraine Drayer
Miss Tripp	Nancy Robinson
Reverend Watson	Gordon Gear
Mrs. Sampler	Sharon Doyle
Mrs. Gross	Sherry Pettis
Mr. Cherry	Jack Howes
Oliver Erwenter	Michael Mueller
Emmett	Peter Maslowski
Bishop	Charles Pearce
Father Shay	James Boster
Mr. Beach	Gilbert Sears
D.A.R. Woman	Billie Konop
Policeman	Forest Heis

Mrs. Gross expresses her opinions on sinful condition of the world.

Old folks are awed by Oliver Erwenter's explanation of the secret of life.

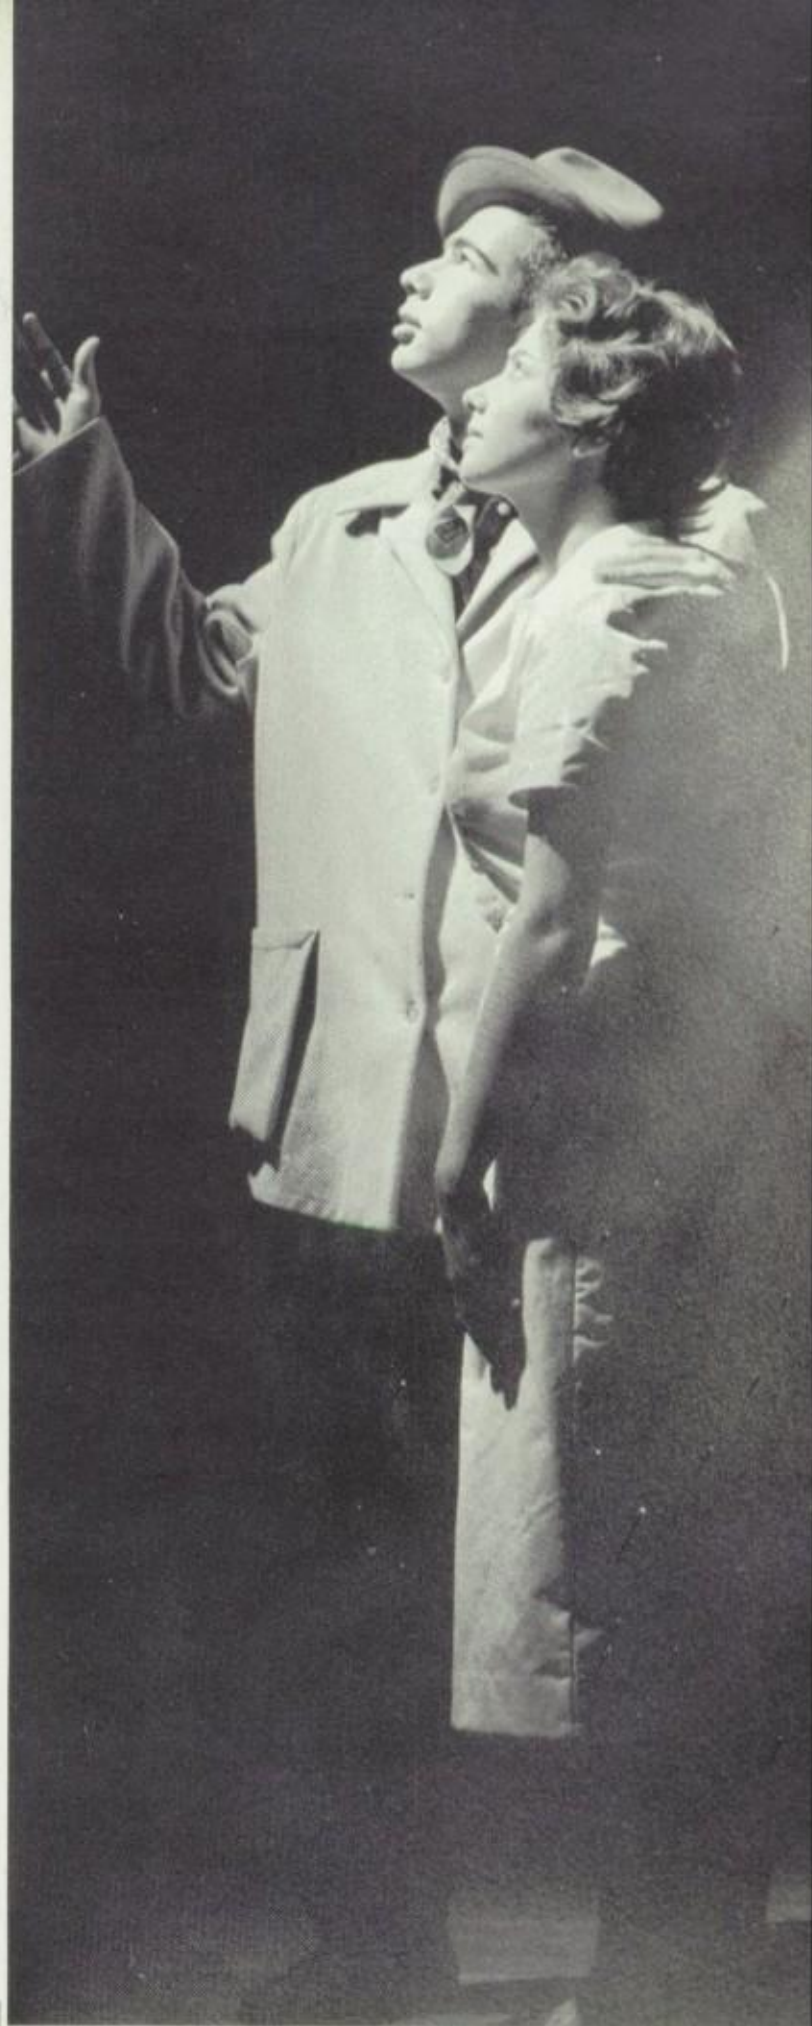

Life at the old folks' home was very dull and depressing. All this changed with the appearance of Oliver Erwenter. He brought with him a fighting cock named Omar, gay philosophical arguments, and — most important of all these — the secret of life. Oliver instilled hope and happiness in the lives of the old people by teaching them to live every moment as if it were their last.

Reverend Watson discovers Miss Hoadley has hit the bottle once too often.

Miss Tripp is enchanted by the beauty of the moon.

Mr. Beebe and Mrs. Sampler secretly share a few romantic words.

Proctor begs Abigail to stop her false accusations.

Mary Warren saves herself a beating by testifying for Elizabeth in Court.

Mary Warren sobs as she admits she has helped to convict thirty-nine women and to hang one.

Betty Parris wakes from her trance and hysterically cries out Abigail's evil doings.

The Crucible

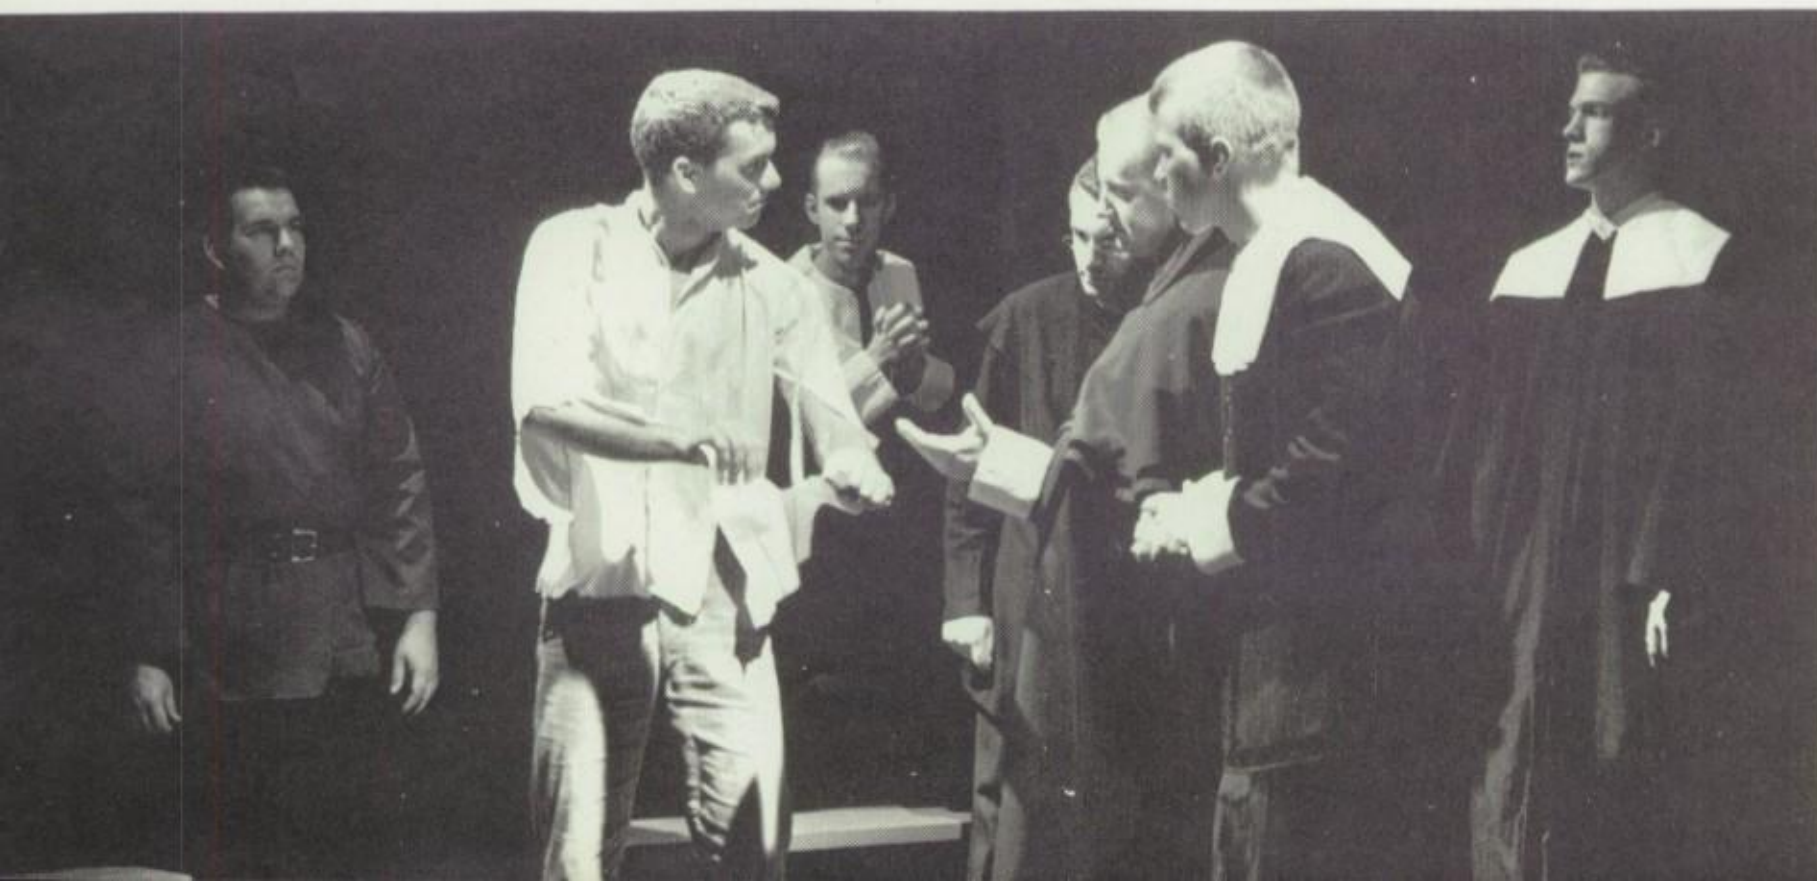

by Arthur Miller

"The Crucible" is the dark and brooding tale of the horrors of false accusation during the Salem witchcraft trials of 1692. Encouraged by evil Abigail Williams, several young girls of Salem stir up trouble and suspicion by insisting that they are messengers of God sent to point out people guilty of witchcraft. The scheme begins as sport, but soon becomes so serious that the girls fear the serious consequences they may suffer. Because of these malicious lies, many people are needlessly accused, convicted, and hanged.

Tituba, confused by Reverend Hale's questions, accuses many of witchcraft.

John Proctor destroys his confession of witchcraft when he realizes he has signed away his name, as well as his soul.

Joan's companions resent the poet's remarks about the court.

"Joan of Lorraine" with its bare stage, scant scenery, and partially costumed actors is unique in its method of presentation. It is the story of a play's birth, from the first rough rehearsal to the last dramatic scenes when the actors are inspired with the "holy fire."

Running throughout this famous story of Joan of Arc is the philosophy that although human beings must compromise a little in life, they dare not sacrifice their principles and ideals.

Joan and the Dauphin disagree on military tactics.

Tremouille and the Archbishop arouse suspicions about Joan in the Dauphin's mind.

Senior Class Play

Joan of Lorraine

by Maxwell Anderson

Joan is driven to hysterics by the repeated questions of the clergy.

The Dauphin's teasing tweak does not amuse Aurore.

Your Own Princess Phone

What teenager wouldn't get excited over having her very own Princess phone. Think what a joy to use a phone that's scarcely bigger than your hand — that feels light as a feather — with a dial that glows softly, lights up brightly whenever you pick up the receiver.

You'll enjoy calls more in your own room on your own Princess phone. And, the monthly charge is so low that you may be able to pay for a Princess extension yourself. For more information, call our business office, EXchange 6-9900.

 For Today and Tomorrow

- School Spirit
- Unity
- Harmony

The High School Class Ring represents one of life's lasting traditions recognizing achievement and responsibility.

For many students this is the first opportunity to "really belong" and to be identified with scholastic accomplishment and the satisfactions surrounding graduation from high school.
